COUNTY KILDARE TOURISM

A little more local...

This Christmas, discover just how much there is to give in Kildare.

From locally made treats and thoughtful finds to memorable days out and relaxing escapes, our gift guide brings together ideas from businesses across the county.

Every gift bought locally helps support the people and places that make Kildare special. We hope these pages inspire you to explore, shop local and find something they'll love.

Happy Christmas from all of us at Into Kildare.

Stay

Give someone a night away in Kildare this Christmas. Think a walk along the canal, dinner somewhere special and a slow breakfast the next morning.

Whether it’s a weekend for two or a night away with friends, it’s a lovely excuse to spend a little longer exploring the county.

For a country house escape, discover The K Club in Straffan, Fairmont Carton House near Maynooth or Barberstown Castle. In and around Naas, there’s Killashee Hotel, Lawlor’s of Naas and The Keadeen Hotel in nearby Newbridge.

Or head to The Clanard Court Hotel in Athy and make a weekend of it with a visit to the Shackleton Experience. Pick a place they’ll love and give them a break to look forward to.

Handmade Irish Gifts

GATHER

GATHER is a collective of over 20 makers and designers, all from County Kildare.

The store is in the heart of Kildare Town and home to beautiful artisan products, all created and designed locally.

Supported by LEO Kildare and Kildare County Council, GATHER champions handmade, ethical and small-scale products. Carefully considered and Kildare made.

The full list of makers can be viewed at Gatherkildare.com

Eileen Tan Fragrances

Eileen Tan grew up in her grandmother's garden in Kuala Lumpur. Years of teaching piano shaped her approach to fragrance: one note placed carefully after another.

Training in Grasse taught her that timing matters and nothing should be rushed. Today, she composes every fragrance with the same care, hand blended in small batches.
